Subject: Discussion of Previously approved Ordinance No.: 2023-07 Amending Chapter 2 of the Code of Laws of Gadsden County, Florida, by Amending Sections 2-141 and 2-142 Relating to Expenditures for Miscellaneous Purposes

Statement of Issue:

This agenda item is for Board discussion of the previously approved Ordinance No.: 2023-07 Amending Chapter 2 of the Code of Laws of Gadsden County, Florida, by Amending Section 2-141 and 2-142 Relating to Expenditures for Miscellaneous Purposes.

Background:

Ordinance No.: 2023-07 Amending Chapter 2 of the Code of Laws of Gadsden County, Florida, by Amending Section 2-141 and 2-142 Relating to Expenditures for Miscellaneous Purposes was approved by the Board on November 21, 2023.

In 2006, the Board approved Ordinance 2006-18 stating County funds may be expended for special awards, mementos, food and refreshments for retreats, visitors, County social and public events, and other miscellaneous expenditures deemed to be in the public interest or needed for public purpose. All such expenditures are hereby declared to be for a valid public interest or needed for public purposes.

Analysis:

The original amount approved for spending in 2006 under Ordinance 06-18 was $500.00. The Ordinance was seventeen years old and outdated. The overall cost of goods and services has been on the rise; therefore, the request was to update the threshold to $5,000.00.

Updating the threshold will help streamline vendor payments that are processed under this Ordinance.

Fiscal Impact:

None at this time.
